

TELLING THE NEWS WITH PICTURES

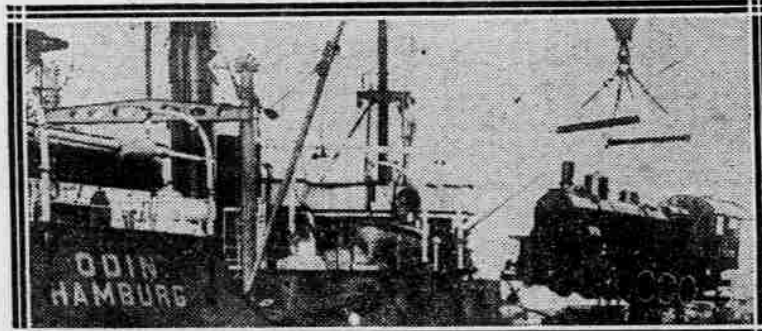

MOONLIGHT VIEW ENHANCES BEAUTY OF NIAGARA FALLS—First successful night photograph of great natural wonder. (N. Y. A.)

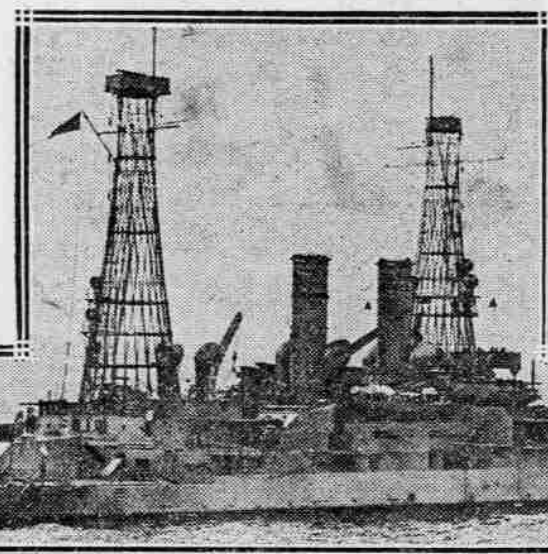

MEN WHO PILOTED ARMY DIRIGIBLE C-2 ACROSS CONTINENT—Left to right: Major Baldwin, commander of Roos Field, Arcadia, Cal.; Major H. A. Strauss, commander of C-2; Captain George McEntire, Lieutenant O. C. Anderson, Lieutenant D. I. Hutchinson, Sergeant C. D. Albrecht and Sergeant William A. Fitch. (Int'l News Reel.)

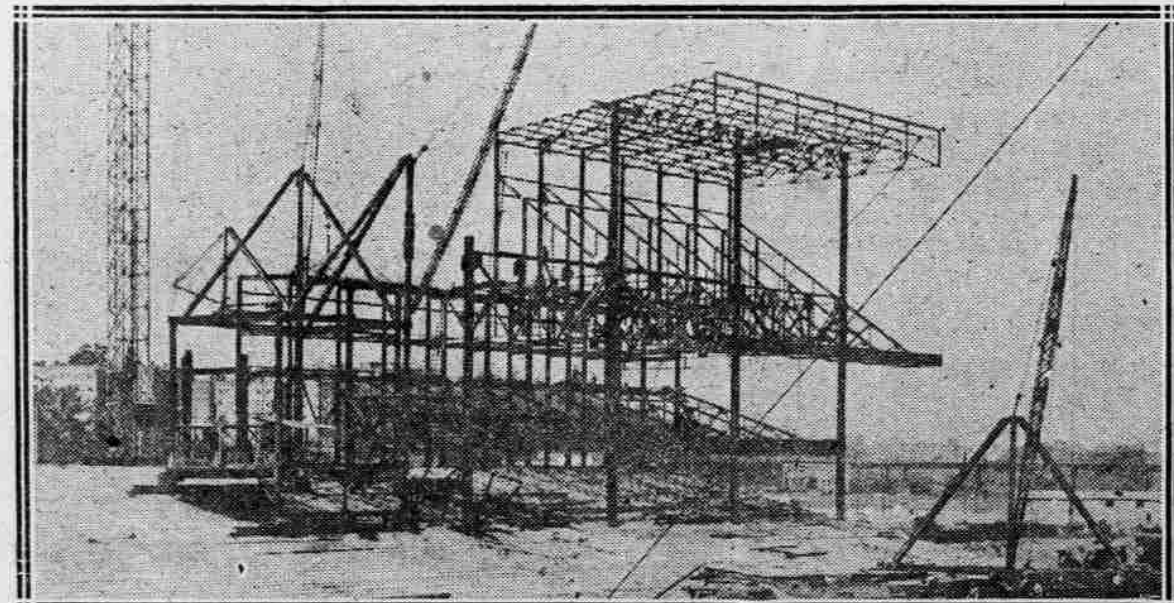

ARMY DIRIGIBLE C-2 completed its flight from Langley Field, Newport News, Va., and was housed in hangar at Roos Field, Arcadia, Cal. (Int'l News Reel.)

GERMAN MADE LOCOMOTIVES, shipped ready to be fired up and run, being unloaded at Russian port for Soviet railways. (Int'l News Reel.)

GREEK BATTLESHIP LEMNOS, formerly U. S. S. Idaho, led revolutionary movement that ended in abdication of King Constantine. (Int'l News Reel.)

WHERE NEW YORK YANKEES WILL PLAY—Largest baseball stand in world being erected in New York for American League players. It will be completed in February, 1923. (Int'l News Reel.)

MISS HELEN NICHOLSON wearing opussum coat of new design at Boston fashion show. (Int'l News Reel.)

"KILL 'EM!"—Tackling dummy at Annapolis is made as realistic as possible. (Int'l News Reel.)

TURKISH INFANTRY dig in in face of British threats in Dardanelles sector. (Int'l Newsreel)

OLIVE FREMSTAD, noted opera singer, has returned from protracted tour of Europe. (Int'l Newsreel)

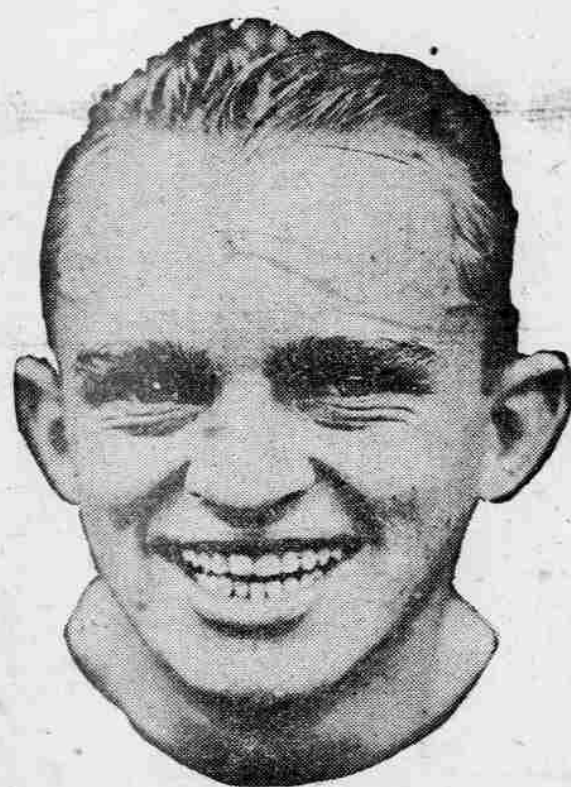

MISS DOROTHY FRANCESCA MILLER, of Oak Park, suburb of Chicago, has been appointed by Governor Small as "Princess of Illinois" to compete for crown of Queen at coronation of King Cotton at ball of Texas Cotton Palace Exposition in Waco, Texas, October 31. (Int'l Newsreel)

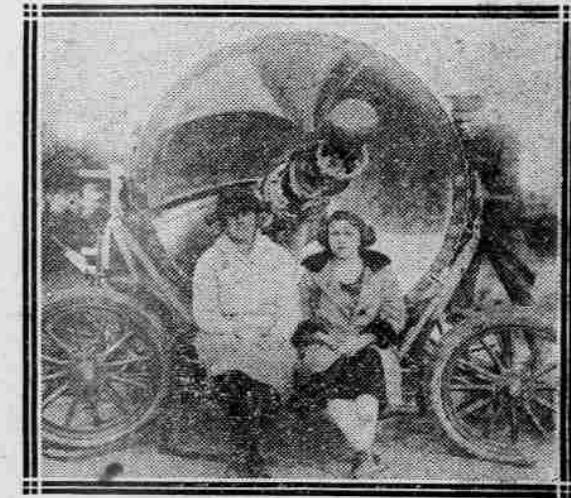

MORRIS GEST, theatrical manager, has won five year fight to free parents from Soviet Russia. Leon Gershonovitch (left), his father and mother, will sail for United States in few weeks. Gest was overcome with joy by news received from American Relief Association. (N. Y. A.)

HEADS HONOR LIST when given mention by Police Commissioner Enright for her work in solving notorious Varotta kidnaping case in New York. Policewoman Rae Niccioletti of "finest." (N. Y. A.)

SMILING CAPTAIN BUELL, of Harvard football eleven, hopes for as good a season of victories as team had last year. (Int'l Newsreel)

HUGE SIGNAL CORPS SEARCHLIGHT, with 1,000,000,000 candle-power, shown at Illuminating Engineers' Convention at Swampscott, Mass. (Int'l Newsreel)

Copyright, 1923, International News Service.